Subject: Tissue & Paper Bangkok Rescheduled to September 2022

Dear Industry Colleagues,

The organizer of Tissue & Paper Bangkok 2022 – due to take place in May 2022 – announce that the show has been rescheduled to 14-16 September 2022 at a NEW VENUE: Queen Sirikit National Convention Center (QSNCC).

It is anticipated that the new show dates will allow more time for vaccination rates to increase and for business travel to resume, enabling us all to prepare for a smooth and successful show.

We are confident that the rescheduling is the best course of action and the new dates of 14-16 September 2022 will give all stakeholders the re-assurance to take part in a safe and secure business event.

At the same time, the show will be relocated to Queen Sirikit National Convention Center, which is offering renovated and new exhibition halls, as well as being conveniently located in the city center, with ample accommodation choices within walking distance.

We truly value and thank you for your patience, understanding and loyal support over the last months throughout the different postponements of the trade show. We are confident that, with the support of all customers and partners, Tissue & Paper Bangkok 2022 will be the not-to-miss event, an exclusive platform for all industry players to connect, learn, meet clients, make new contacts and craft invaluable business opportunities!

The Organizing Committee of Tissue & Paper Bangkok 2022 wishes to thank all Supporting Organizations, Media Partners, and friends for their tremendous support and apologizes for the inconvenience caused under these exceptional circumstances. The team members will be in touch with exhibitors and all stakeholders involved for follow-up arrangements.

We look forward to seeing you again at Tissue & Paper Bangkok 2022 in Queen Sirikit National Convention Centre on 14-16 September 2022!
